

Please reject NAB petition 04-160. I travel around major metro areas and find that XM traffic and weather channels invaluable. Times are changing. The typical broadcasting people are just like the contact card system in my collection industry. If computers were not able to help us do a better job, where would we be today.